Hunger and Homeless Awareness Summit

Palisades Presbyterian Church

9:00 am – 12:00 pm

The number of homeless people in San Diego County has now risen to over 9000 people. With the unstable economy and the high unemployment rate, these numbers are likely to increase.

This issue presents a unique missional opportunity for our churches to emerge as leaders in mitigating the impact of poverty on our “neighbors”. In the spirit of Matthew 25:40, the purpose of this summit is raise awareness and to equip and empower individuals and congregations to help the least and the lost.
