

Dr. Mike Wallman

Mike was raised the oldest of 5 adopted children. He was raised primarily in Malibu, California. In 1968 while attending a high school summer retreat on Catalina Island Pastor Wallman received Christ as his Lord and Savior.

Mike is a graduate of Santa Monica High School in 1970 and California State University Northridge in 1975 with a BA in Speech and Communication. He graduated from Fuller Seminary in 1979 with a Master of Divinity degree.

Mike was ordained in 1979 as a Minister of the Word and Sacrament having received a call as High School Pastor at First Presbyterian Church of Boulder, Colorado.

In 1981 Mike received a new call to be the assistant pastor of First Presbyterian Church of Downey, Ca. In 1985 he became the solo pastor of Dunlap Presbyterian Church of Shreveport, LA. While in Shreveport Mike earned a Doctor of Ministry degree from Dubuque Theological Seminary.

In 1991 Mike received a call to First Presbyterian Church of Santa Maria, California. He served that church for 14 years and was active in the Presbytery of Santa Barbara over 17 years including his service as Moderator in 2007.

Mike has served as Interim Pastor at congregations in Carpinteria, Westminster, Laguna Hills, Indio, and here in San Diego at First Presbyterian, Oceanside and currently at Grace Presbyterian Church in Vista.

Mike is married to Joni who has served on church staffs in North San Diego County for many years including North Coast Presbyterian Church and North Coast Calvary Chapel. Between them they have four adult children and eight grandchildren.

Mike still loves to surf, ski, cycle, and play his guitar. "I gotta keep moving and staying in shape so I can serve the Lord with all my might!"

Rev. Sam Codington

Sam Codington is the pastor and head of staff of Faith Presbyterian Church in the College Area of San Diego. He grew up as a pastor's kid in a Presbyterian church in South Carolina. He has studied philosophy, literature, and ethics. He is nearing the completion of a DMin in which he is exploring ways Eurocentric colonization has shaped and animated worship liturgy. He is married to Esther, and they have a six-year-old son, Ezra. They love the outdoors, hiking, running, tall trees, hummingbirds, and dusty rocks. Sam desires to cultivate a deeper relationship with the earth, honoring the human and the more than human.

Lyn Lloyd Smith

Lyn Lloyd-Smith grew up in Northern Ireland.

She studied Linguistics at Leeds University in the north of England and spent a year teaching in France.

After graduating Lyn worked in Management Accounting and gained a professional qualification.

Lyn met her husband, Malcolm, at university. They have three grown children. Together they have lived in Germany, Switzerland, England and three different American states.

Lyn has had church homes in the Irish Presbyterian Church, the Eglise Reformée de France, the Church of Scotland in Geneva, Switzerland, the United Reformed Church in England and here in the United States in the PC (USA).

Lyn has been a deacon and then an elder at the Village Church in Rancho Santa Fe.

In San Diego Presbytery she is honored to serve, previously on the Evangelism and Mission Committee and now as Moderator for 2022.

Delores McNeely

Delores McNeely was employed by Union Bank of California for more than 36 years, the second largest commercial bank headquartered in California. She was a Senior Vice President and Sales Executive managing the Bank's statewide Company Benefits Banking Department, with a primary focus on sustaining a highly consultative employee sales force. Throughout Ms. McNeely's tenure at Union Bank of California, she served in various regional manager assignments throughout California and was responsible for sales and market development for branch deposit gathering, small business commercial sales, and retail lending sales. Her extensive knowledge of banking was developed through her participation in the bank's management training program. She was also assigned to the bank's Corporate Training and Development Department for 14 years.

After retiring from Union Bank, Delores worked with U.S. Bank for 6 years as Vice President, District Manager for branch branches throughout San Diego County, responsible for small business development, revenue growth, and customer loyalty.

Notable professional accomplishments and achievements included: being a featured guest speaker for the School of Bank Marketing Sales Colloquium at the University of Colorado, a member of the Urban Financial Services Coalition, and was an instructor for the Bank Administration Institute's Graduate School of Retail Banking at the University of Wisconsin. Delores was also a featured guest speaker with General Colin Powell for the City Club of San Diego, and participated as an Honorary Chair for the United Negro College Fund (UNCF).

Delores was the recipient of many awards, including: YWCA's Tribute to Women in Industry (TWIN) Award; the Bridge Builder's Award - Pazzaz, Inc.; Catfish Club's Salute to Pioneering

Women Award; the National Conference for Community and Justice's Humanitarian of the Year Award; a Girl Scouts of San Diego Cool Women; a San Diego Junior Achievement Hall of Fame Lifetime Laureate; UAAMAC's Lifetime Achievement Award; Salvation Army's Women of Dedication; Women's Incorporated, Women of Distinction; and the Lead Visionary Award for Community Collaboration.

Delores' community and civic activities include service on various boards including the Urban Financial Services Coalition-San Diego Chapter, Lyceum Theater, Martin Luther King, Jr. Foundation, San Diego Economic Development Task Force, Center for Community Solutions, City of San Diego Historical Resources Board, San Diego Police Foundation, the Mayor's African American Advisory Board, The Links Incorporated, The Girl Friends, Inc., and is published in Marquis' Who's Who of American Women - 22nd Edition.

Ms. McNeely received her business education from San Diego State University, and the University of Colorado, Boulder Graduate School of Human Resources. She is also a graduate of Pacific Coast Banking School at the University of Washington.

YAAD – Daniel Presa

Daniel Presa is a freshman at Davidson College. He is also an active and confirmed member of Village Community Presbyterian Church. He is an Eagle Scout, a longtime member of his church's youth choir, active member of the church's student ministry, and served in the church's Youth Director Search Committee. He has attended 3 other General Assemblies and enjoyed the experiences there and would like to represent the Presbytery of San Diego this year.